14th Sunday of the Year: 6th July 2025

Peace to this house!

The readings celebrate the grace of Christ's peace, and invite us to become messengers of that peace to all around us. Isaiah calls the people of Israel to trust in God's loving presence with them. He compares the care and comfort God lavishes on us to that of a comforting, nurturing mother. (1st Reading) Today's Psalm reverberates with the joy of a people conscious of God's care. In the 2nd Reading, Paul tells the Christians of Galatia that they are a new creation; a new people of God. The 'marks' that matter now are not the marks of circumcision, but those of a new creature who follows the way of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In the Gospel story, Jesus speaks of the urgency and magnitude of the task of proclaiming his message to all the peoples. He sends out the 72 disciples to prepare the way for him and to spread his peace. On their return, Jesus reminds the rejoicing disciples that their success lies in his power working through them, not in their own strength.

This week, let us pray to the Father to be shown our mission individually and collectively in our church community, as we are called to become messengers of peace and hope in word and deed.

Please note: Mass on Tuesday is at 9.00am - so that the Ladies can come to Mass and ask for God's help before their outing to Yorkshire!

Annual Lourdes Mass – Sunday 13th July, 5:00 pm - Metropolitan Cathedral Traditionally, our pilgrimage family gathers for a Departure Mass a few weeks before we travel. This year, we'd like to reimagine that celebration as a Diocesan Lourdes Mass, open to all. During this special liturgy, lanterns currently journeying around our Deaneries, accompanied by opportunities for parishioners to write petitions will be presented. These petitions will be taken to Lourdes on behalf of our diocesan family. Archbishop Malcolm will be presiding.

Lourdes at Home: During the pilgrimage we will be having a number of opportunities for those unable to go to share the Lourdes experience. There will be anointing of the sick, a holy hour and a Marian procession .

Day For Catechists: Are you a catechist looking for spiritual refreshment? On 27th Sept from 10.00am – 4.00pm at Carmelite Monastery L18 3NU.
